THE PRINCETON DAY SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

The hues of blue and white are worn in pride by Princeton's great,
Upon the fields where fallen foes have felt the Panther's weight.
In such surroundings there has grown, in classroom and at play, A winning spirit in the boys and girls of Princeton Day!

In time to come, with dimming eyes, we'll gaze upon these walls, We'll pass with feeble steps along these once familiar halls.
With the lamp of knowledge shining bright to guide us on our way, We pledge our hearts and minds to you, our dear old Princeton Day!
